

Clay Arts Vegas (CAV) Is now accepting applications for The Resident Artist Program.

The Resident Artist Program offers individuals the opportunity to further develop their work, to establish professional contacts and standards, and to work within a community of like-minded individuals in one of the world's top tourist destinations Las Vegas Nevada. Once chosen as a resident artist, an artist may choose either a 3, 6 month or one year residency

A residency at CAV includes:

- Semi private storage space
- Use of 6 electric, two updraft gas, one down draft gas, and three raku kilns (specs available upon request)
- Work fired with student pieces at no cost (based on space) and personal firings at cost
- Three glaze spraying hoods
- 20% off all clay
- Teaching opportunities
- Exhibition opportunities
- Representation in store and gallery 60/40 split artist/gallery
- Representation at events
- $100 stipend per month
- Off Site Housing

Resident Artists also pay for the materials they use and firings (based on individual usage).

Residents share common housekeeping work and contribute time to Clay Arts Vegas as well.

Artist Requirements

- Teach 3 3 hour class and cover some open studio time between Thursday and Saturday
- Represent the studio at all first Friday gallery openings
- Assist guest artists for all weekend workshops (5 per Year)
- Share in the loading and unloading of kilns
- Assist in studio up keep
- Assist during second Saturday Raku firings
- Assist during Special events

- Offer a workshop in a specialty area for CAV members during the month of personal exhibition
- A $250.00 refundable security deposit and a yearly CAV membership fee of $65.00 are also required upon entry into the program.

Each artist is required to leave one work for the permanent collection of the studio. Artist is responsible for his/her own travel to and from Clay Arts Vegas.

Interaction with The CAV Community

There is no formal structure by design of contact outside of formal taught classes. Artists are provided with keys and may choose to work when they find it most advantageous. Artists are expected to be open to the questions of Clay Arts Vegas students and artists. While at the studio guest artists enjoy ample contact with people working at all levels in ceramics. We strongly believe that Clay Arts Vegas is a community built on diversity and every person working in the studio is a peer to learn, share, and enjoy.

Works Created During the Residency

Aside from the piece selected for the permanent collection, works created during the residency are the property of the artist. All work created over the course of the residency may be shipped to the artist at their own expense. Work left for sale with the Gallery or Shop shall become the property of Clay Arts Vegas or will be returned to the artist at their expense after one year. The Clay Arts Vegas retains 40% of any works it sells for guest artists. Shipping arrangements must be made prior to the end of the residency.
